Welcome to Calculus

Class Expectations:

You are a young adult, with this comes the acceptance of responsibilities and consequences for your actions or lack thereof. As a student, you are expected to do your best. You are here to learn and be successful. You are also expected to follow all class rules as well as school and district policies.

Course Requirements:

1. TESTS: Tests will be given each Nine Weeks. The average for the tests will count for 40% of the Nine Weeks Grade.
2. Homework: The average of all graded homework assignments will count for 20% of the Nine Weeks Grade.
3. Quizzes: The average of all quizzes will count for 40% of the Nine Weeks Grade.

7. Stay Seated Unless Given Permission
8. NO Unauthorized electronic devices at any time in classroom.
9. Students must maintain the school's dress code.
10. Students will maintain the positive leaning atmosphere in the classroom.
11. Students will complete their assignments on time, no late work accepted.

Repercussions:

1. Warning
2. Lunch Detention
3. Student Conference
4. Call to parent/guardian
5. Referral

 All unauthorized electronic devices will be confiscated

Retake Policy (per school board policy)

A student may retake a failed assignment/assessment if they earned below a 70 on the original attempt. The grade of the retake will be averaged with the score earned on the original attempt. If the grade on the second attempt is below 70, a third attempt may be given. The grade for the assignment/assessment will be the average of the three (3) attempts.

Missing an Assessment Due to Excused Absence

If a student misses an assessment for whatever reason, the student must complete the make-up assessment no later than two schooldays after the assessment. Accommodations can be made with prior notice.

Excused Absence Policy:

It is the student’s responsibility to get his/her missed assignments. The student will have one(1) school day for everyday missed to complete and turn in a missed assignment.

Ex. Student is absent on Monday. Student gets missed assignment on Tuesday. Student turns in completed assignment on Wednesday.
